A hot drink for the warm weather is the Grande Hammer cocktail, dreamed up by, Mexico. The ingredients are 2 parts rum, 1 part gin and as many parts of well-tanned femininity as are available. Garnish with a bikini. Serve piping hot.

They say Vitamin D is produced when the skin is hit by ultraviolet rays and we registered on the beach that as I can become a prime ingredient in "Winecool"? Another journalist asked: Come to this kind of experiment probably would ruin the complexion. Oh, well, let "Winecool" worry about that

What needs exposure? If you want to get well-tanned...

SUNSPOTS: U.S.A.

With the decline of the big white sunbrowned beauty of the Gay Nineties and the fall of the flapper, the gawking flapper of the Twenties, American girls have become real worshipping. Fashionable young ladies now have all-over tans and the closer they can come to resembling Taliaferro, the happier they and the men — say, this time around — are. Those of the pastorella variety, whose faces often showed the ravages and color of rough weather from frequent exposure to the sun, wind and rain. Today's girl goes about the business of making top stars make her and a darker complexion with the care and precision of a woman engaged in carefully staged scenes. But the girls look much prettier doing it.

BEACHED BLONDES

The camera uncovers some real beach camera

Angles enough and man the boats is the cry

as our photographer rounds the Pacific

I'm just a crazy, mixed-up kid
Who can't tell her ego from her id
Not right from wrong, unless I'm caught.
It gives a Jung girl Freud for thought.
